Subject: Email Ruling Directing Parties to File A Joint Proposed Proceeding Schedule (I.16-06-010) - OII re fatal accident on the BART Line on 10.19.2013

Attention All Parties, Counsel and the Docket office:

As indicated to the parties at the prehearing conference held this morning, attached please find a sample skeleton of potential proceeding schedule.

Parties are directed to meet and confer, and by October 18, 2016, file and serve a joint proposed schedule. In developing your joint proposed schedule, keep in mind that this is an adjudicatory matter, and under section 1701.2 of the California Public Utilities Code, the Commission must resolve this matter by June 23, 2017. That means the Commission must adopt a proposed decision or otherwise resolve this matter. If a proposed decision is anticipated, then the matter must be submitted no later than March 2017 to be placed on timely Commission schedule and resolution track.

A sample direction on joint case management statement and my hearing ground rules are also attached for your general reference.

Docket Office shall formally file this ruling.
